

ABSTRACT: Geogebra is a dynamic geometry software that brings together Geometry, Algebra and Calculus. It is intuitive and easy to use allowing the user to create experimental mathematical environments where students' exploration of the essentials is encouraged. Here we demonstrate how Geogebra may be incorporated as an appropriate technology in our introductory mathematics courses.